10.3% of total GDP was contributed by Travel & Tourism.

There were 330 million jobs globally, with 1 in 10 jobs (10.3%) directly related to Travel & Tourism.

1 in 4 of new net jobs were created by Travel & Tourism over the last five years.

Global GDP impact by sector (2018 data). Travel & Tourism contributed 3.5% to GDP, which is significantly more than the 2.5% growth of the overall economy.

Inbound Arrivals:
1. Argentina 49%
2. Brazil 9%
3. Bolivia 8%
4. Peru 7%
5. United States 4%
6. Rest of World 23%

Outbound Departures:
1. Peru 27%
2. Argentina 27%
3. Brazil 8%
4. United States 8%
5. Mexico 3%
6. Rest of World 27%

International Visitor Impact:
- CLP 2,426.9 billion in visitor spend (4.4% of total exports)
- USD 3,451.0 million

Tourism is a significant driver of employment, with 991,700 jobs (3.5% of total employment).

GDP in 2019 was CLP 19,786.9 billion (USD 28,136.4 million), reflecting the growth of Travel & Tourism at 3.5% compared to 2.5% for the overall economy.

Note: Data are average shares over the 2016-2018 period. Source: Oxford Economics, national sources and UNWTO.